The Atlantic Monthly, one of the full grown, mature magazines of the country, this month completes its 25th volume. It opens with an article on botanizing by W. Flag, the Shifting Power, Mehtabel, A Virginian in New England 35 years Ago, Chap. V. Reading these sketches brings to mind things that transpired nearly 40 years since. Capture of Ft. Fisher, and a long list of original or contributed articles on various live questions. J. R. Osgood & Co., Boston.

The American Sunday School Worker, published by J. W. McIntyre, St. Louis, Mo. comes to us with its usual variety. It is adapted to all parts of the country, designed to be evangelical in tone, and possesses peculiar advantages.

J. R. Osgood & Co., publishers of the Atlantic Monthly and other excellent magazines, beside any number of books, have sent us a copy of Jim Bludso and Little Breeches, illustrated by S. Eytling, one of the best delineators of character in the country. The readings and pictures make it a very live little book.

The Physiological Journal, now up to volume 53 continues in its useful way of leading the public mind on questions affecting the interests of the race. Without losing sight of its special characteristics in teaching the rational system of mental philosophy it devotes much attention to ethical questions, and aims to elevate the moral as well as physical character of those who read its valuable teachings. S. R. Wells, N. Y.

Peters' Musical Monthly for the present month has some fifteen or twenty pieces of music, vocal and instrumental, composed by leading authors. Here is an attraction that can be had for 80 cents, which in shape of sheet music will cost $5 to $6. J. L. Peters, N. Y.

Merry's Museum, by H. Fuller, Boston—a monthly for boys and girls. Mr. Fuller has a way of keeping up the interest of this worker for diffusing knowledge among the youth which makes it a success every time.

Joseph Allen's Schoolmate, an illustrated monthly for the boys and girls, gives its young readers many pleasant hints in the way of imparting instruction. Boston, Mass.

The Ohio Ed. Monthly—well, our teachers know so much better than we can tell them of the value of this work that it is useless to dilate as to the advantages its instruction confers. E. E. White, Columbus.

The Am. Ed. Monthly, both as a state and national leader in the work of promoting the teachers interest and imparting to him useful ideas, is one of the best of its class of publications in the country. J. W. Schermhorn & Co. N. Y.

W. R. DePuy & Bro. of N. Y. continue their labors in behalf of the people in sending forth their Home and Health. The June No. has much in it worth reading.

The Herald of Health, now in its 51st volume, exhorts, entreats, reproves and edifies those who read its pages in the general matters of health. Following the theories it inculcates would dispense with tuns of dyestuffs and drugs in the shape of medicines, and save myriads of years of premature suffering and early graves. Wood & Holbrook, N. Y.

BLUE LAWS OF VIRGINIA.

Virginia was styled "Old Dominion" because during the protectorate of Cromwell something like an attempt was made to invite Charles II, it is said, then a refugee, to establish an independent dominion within her territory. Many of the so called "blue laws" of Virginia are, in their way, as laughable as those of any other of the colonial governments. We may well wonder if posterity will laugh at us in future time, twenty years from now, as we love in the present generation to poke fun at our ancestors, or rather, as we should say, at our neighbor's ancestors.

Well the blue laws of Virginia—these are a few extracts:

In 1610, attendance at church twice every Sunday was enjoined upon pain, for the first fault, to lose their provisions and allowance for the whole week following; for the second, to lose said allowance, and also to be whipped; and for the third to suffer death. The law was subsequently modified as follows: "That every person should go to church Sundays and holidays, or lie neck and heels that night, and be a slave to the colony the following week; for the second offence he should be a slave for a month; for the third a year and a day.

What if we had such a law in our day? Wouldn't the lazy folks get up early in the morning? The probability is beyond question.

Judging from the latter clause of the following sentence, one hour services were not the fashion in the early times. 1662—Every person who refuses to have his child baptized by a lawful minister (of the Church of England), shall be amerced 2,000 lbs. of tobacco. The whole liturgy of the Church of England shall be thoroughly read at church or chapel every Sunday.

Near how the poor Quakers caught it.

1683—If any Quaker or other separatist whatsoever in this colony assemble themselves together to the number of five or more, of the age of 16 years or upwards, under the pretense of joining in a religious worship not authorized in England or this country, the parties so offending shall forfeit and pay for the first offence, 500 pounds of tobacco, and for the third offence shall be banished from the colony.

They did not let people travel on Sundays in Connecticut. They tell amusing stories about the selection stopping people on the highways there in ancient times. Well, they did nothing of the sort in Virginia! Of course not. Let us see:

1692—Enacted, that the Lord's day be kept holy, and that no journeys be made on that day, unless upon necessity. And all persons inhabiting in the country, having no lawful excuse, shall every Sunday resort to the parish church or chapel. Good; this was a jolly.

Again: "The Court of every county shall cause to be set up near the court house a pillory, a pair of stocks, a whipping post, and a ducking stool, in such places as they shall think convenient, which not being set up in six months after the date of this act, said Court shall be fined 5,000 lbs. of tobacco." Funny, decidedly; but the funniest part of this tale is the ducking or ducking stool. This was a sort of long beam or pole, moving on a pivot at the middle, and having a seat fastened at the further end, wherein a scolding woman being placed, was conveniently let down and ducked in a pond or stream of water.

This was a favorite pastime of the royalists in early days. I have never discovered that the Puritans ever practiced it in New England. Not they. They were too straight laced for any such amusements. And the method of punishing scolds was introduced into this city of New York by royalist English—most ungrateful fellows!—and not by the Dutch, and the practice prevailed here for a long period. We have a city ordinance decreeing that one was erected as early as 1692. The machine then stood on the wharf in front of the old Stadt Huys or City Hall in Coenties slip.

But one more and I have done. 1679—The first offense of hog stealing shall be punished according to the former law (to pay 1,000 pounds of tobacco, and in case of inability, serve two years); upon a second conviction the offender shall stand two hours in and lose his ears; and for the third time he shall be tried by the laws of England, as in case of felony.

Poor pig stealer!

SUCCESSFUL MEN.

A few days since the head of one of our most prominent banking firms proceeded to Washington. He was accompanied by an amanuensis, who wrote short hand as he opened letters and dictated to him. When half the journey was accomplished, the stenographer returned to New York to write out in full and dispatch the answers to correspondents, and the banker was joined by a second, to whom he dictated during the remainder of the trip. But a few years ago this new million aire, whose name is familiar to every one, was a poor farmer's boy. He began life with no rich or influential friends to aid him, but was wholly dependent on his own exertions. He, however, possessed a stout heart and a resolute purpose, and determined to improve every moment. The incident we have recorded above was the result of this determination adhered to, and reveals the secret of his great success. Though he has a hundred of subordinates to do his bidding, and could devote himself entirely to ease and enjoyment he yet labors constantly, not permitting hours of travel to pass unimproved. And what is true of this individual, will be true of all successful self made men. They have begun their careers with a keen realization of the importance of time, and of the necessity of making every moment tell, if he would achieve prosperity and eminence. Those who wait upon luck or a stroke of good fortune to carry them forward, will never make progress, however great their abilities. The Creator gives, declared Montesquieu, but he does not guarantee them.

There is a story told of a landholder, who, unable to make a living from his farm, and steadily running behind hand, leased half of it to a peasant for a number of years. At the end of the time the tenant came to him with an offer to purchase. Greatly surprised, the owner replied: "This is exceedingly strange, pray tell me how it happens that, while I could not live on twice as much land, for which I pay no rent, you are regularly paying me two hundred a year for your farm, and are able in a few years to purchase it." The peasant replied: "The reason is plain—you sat still and said 'I got up and said come, you lay in bed and enjoyed your estate, I rose in the morning and minded my business.' There is very much sound sense in this homely response. While the great mass of humanity take the world easy and wonder at the same time why more gifts does not come to their mill, a few at work early and late, improving every moment, and they ultimately achieve financial success.

The same is true of those engaged in other than business pursuits. No matter what may be their advantages or disadvantages of birth, they are the successful men who look upon time as precious, and permit no odd moments to go to waste. Elihu Burritt, while pursuing the avocation of a blacksmith, mastered 18 languages and 22 European dialects. Hale wrote his contemplations while traveling on his circuit. Samuel Smiles tells us that one of his friends, an eminent gentleman of London, learned Latin and French while running bundles as an errand boy in Manchester. Dr. Mason Good, he adds, translated Lucretius while riding about the streets of London on professional visits. Dr. Darwin composed nearly all his works in the same way, while driving about in his sulkey from house to house in the country—writing his thoughts down on little scraps of paper which he carried about him for that purpose. Dr. Burney learned French and while proceeding from one musical pupil to another in the course of his profession, Kirk White acquired a knowledge of Greek while waiting to and from a lawyer's office. Dagueneau, one of the great chancellors of France wrote a bulky and able volume in the successive intervals of waiting for dinner, and Madame De Genlis composed several of her charming volumes while waiting for the princess to whom she gave her daily lessons. Stephenson taught himself arithmetic and mensuration while working as an engine man during the night shifts. Watt taught himself chemistry and mechanics while working at his trade of a mathematical instrument maker, at the same time that he was learning German from a Swiss dyer.

And so we might go on, were it necessary, enumerating instances of what individuals have achieved by employing all the time. Generally speaking, the difference between those who succeed and those who do not is the difference between those who improve their odd moments and those who do not.—Hearth and Home.

DREAMS AND VISIONS.

Lydia Maria Child relates the following:

"When Harriet Hosmer, the sculptor, visited her native country a few years ago, I had an interview with her, during which our conversation happened to turn upon dreams and visions.

"I have had some experience in that way," said she. "Let me tell you a singular circumstance which happened to me in Rome. An Italian girl named Rosa was in my employ for a long time, but was finally obliged to return to her mother on account of confirmed ill health. We were mutually sorry to part, for we liked each other. When I took my customary exercise on horse back, I frequently called to see her. On one of those occasions I found her brighter than I had seen her for some time past. 'Let me tell you a singular circumstance which happened to me in Rome. Hoofland's German Bitters,
Hoofland's German Tonic,
Hoofland's Podophyllin Pill,
Hoofland's Greek Oil.

Hoofland's German Bitters,
A Bitters without Alcohol or Spirits of any kind.

Is different from all others. It is composed of the purest and vital principle of roots, herbs, and barks, (or as medicinally termed extracts), the worthless or inert portions of the ingredients not being used. Therefore, in one bottle of this bitters there is contained all the medicinal virtues as will be found in several gallons of ordinary mixtures. The bitters is free from the objections urged against all others; no desire for stimulants can be induced from their use, they cannot make drunkards, and cannot under any circumstances, have any but a beneficial effect.

Hoofland's German Tonic

Was compounded for those not inclined to extreme bitters, and is intended for use in cases where some alcoholic stimulant is required in connection with the tonic properties of the bitters. Each bottle of the tonic contains one bottle of the bitters, combined with pure Santa Cruz Run, and flavored with the most delicate essences of the bitters. Containing no poisonous ingredients, this tonic is free from the objections urged against all others; no desire for stimulants can be induced from their use, they cannot make drunkards, and cannot under any circumstances, have any but a beneficial effect.

They are the greatest known Remedies

For Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, Jaundice, Disease of the Kidneys, Eruptions of the Skin, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver, or stomach, or Impurity of the Blood.

Read the following symptoms:

Constipation, flatulence, inward piles, fullness of blood to the head, acidity of the stomach, nausea, heartburn, disgust for food, fullness or weight in the stomach, sour eructations, shivering or fluttering at the pit of the stomach, swelling of the head, hurried or difficult breathing, fluttering at the heart, choking or suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, dimness of vision, dots or webs before the sight, dull pain in the head, deficiency of perspiration, coldness of the skin, and eyes, pain in the side, back, chest, limbs, &c., sudden flushes of heat, burning in the flesh, constant imaginations of evil, and great depression of spirits. All these indicate disease of the liver or digestive organs combined with impure blood.

The use of the bitters of tonic will soon cause the above symptoms to disappear, and the patient will become well and healthy.

Dr. Hoofland's Greek Oil,
LIGHTNING CURE FOR ALL KINDS OF PAINS AND ACHES.

APPLIED INTERNALLY.—It will cure kidney complaints, backaches, sick headaches, colic, dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera infantum, cholera morbus, cramps, and pains in the stomach, fever and ague, colds, coughs, Asthma, &c.

APPLIED EXTERNALLY.—It will cure all kinds of pains and aches, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, chilblains, sprains, bruises, frost bites, headaches, pains in the back and joints, pains in the joints or limbs, stings of insects, ringworms, &c.

Dr. Hoofland's Podophyllin
Substitute for Mercury Pill.
TWO PILLS A DOSE.

The most powerful, yet innocent vegetable cathartic known.

It is not necessary to take a handful of these pills to produce the desired effect; two of them act quickly and powerfully, cleansing the liver, stomach and bowels of all impurities. The principal ingredient is Podophyllin, or the alcoholic extract of mandrake, which is by many times more powerful, acting, and searching, than the mandrake itself. Its peculiar action is upon the liver, cleaning it speedily from all obstructions, with all the power of mercury, yet free from the injurious results attached to the use of that mineral.

For all diseases in which the use of a cathartic is indicated, these pills will give entire satisfaction in every case. They never fail.

In cases of liver complaint, dyspepsia, and extreme constipation, Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters or tonic should be used in connection with the pills. The tonic effects of the bitters or tonic builds up the system. The bitters or tonic purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, regulates the liver and gives strength, energy, and vigor.

Keep your bowels open with the pills, and tone up the system with bitters or tonic, and no disease can retain its hold, or ever assail you.

These medicines are sold by all druggists and dealers in medicines everywhere.

Recollect that it is Dr. Hoofland's German Remedies that are so universally used and highly recommended; and do not allow the druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. These remedies will be sent by express to any locality upon application to the principal office, at the German Medical Store, 631 Arch Street, Pa.

Chas. M. Evans, Prop.
Formerly C. M. Jackson & Co.

These remedies are for sale by druggists, storekeepers, and medicine dealers, everywhere throughout the United States, Canada, South America and the West Indies. 289-ly

The ladies of the M E Church will give a Strawberry & Ice cream festival, on Tuesday evening, June 13th, at the parsonage, on North street. A cordial invitation is extended to all, and every thing will be done to make this a pleasant and enjoyable reunion of the society and all its friends.

The evening will be enlivened by the music of the Silver Cornet band.

In consequence of the crowded condition of our columns this week, owing to the large amount of advertisements, we cannot insert the council proceedings, but will do so next week.

NOT ALL DEAD YET—that class who live and don't learn. A firm of two enterprising individuals of this place sent to New York for $4,000 in counterfeit money, and one day last week a box came to the express office to their address, marked C. O. D., charges, $110, which were promptly paid. On opening the box the $4,000 presented the shape of sawdust and shavings. It is pretty hard for people to fool away their money sometimes, but when they aim to deceive others with counterfeit money they don't receive much sympathy. This is an expensive way of obtaining a little education but there seems to be no lack of students of the George Buchanan school, of whom he said, fools and their money are soon parted. The longer a man lives the more he finds (pyram) out.

Saturday night and Sunday we were favored with fine showers of rain. They make everything grow with a rush.

The street going eastward, near the Episcopal church, has recently been much improved by grading, and begins to look as well as many of our thoroughfares which are much older. A number of fine residences adorn its south side, in that vicinity, and improvement is the order of the day.

Cherries and strawberries, home productions, have been in market for the last ten days or more, and they are good to eat, but as to price were a little costly at first—as the feller said.

The Y. M. C. A. rooms are the resort of numbers of our young men every evening who gather there for the purpose of reading and participating in light exercises. So pleasant a place cannot be otherwise than attractive to many who are not otherwise engaged.

Saturday evening the council proceeded to make assessments on the property in the city which in the aggregate amounts to $2,500,000. Levies were made for various objects, in all amounting to 8 mills on the dollar.

The Knoxville (Tenn.) Chronicle, daily and weekly, is published by Rule & Ricks, and is a well conducted paper. Mr. A. J. Ricks is a native of this place, and has numerous friends who remember him as a young man in the private walks of life, and as a soldier who aided in restoring his country to order when the reckless hands of rebels tried to overturn our institutions. Mr. I. Crooks, news agent, in the Opera House, will supply such as wish the Chronicle, either daily or weekly.

Mr. David Anderson, of New Lisbon, one of the venerable school teachers of Ohio, has after a continuous experience in the profession for fifty years, retired to private life. It would be very interesting to his many friends to know how many of his pupils have attained distinction. Being somewhat acquainted with Mr. A. and many of his scholars we could if need be enumerate quite a list of successful mechanics, business men, soldiers, preachers, officials of various grades including judges, congressmen and we don't know where the list would stop if followed out. He has taught, in many cases the children of three consecutive generations.

A serious accident occurred on last Saturday to Mrs. Parsons, and two children, one her own, and a little nephew. They were coming down Main street, when the horse took fright, became unmanageable, and started to run off, but soon brought up, against a tree near Mr. Burton's residence, when the front axle of the carriage was broken, and Mrs. P. and children violently thrown out. They were all considerably bruised, but so far as ascertained it is hoped not dangerously, and are doing as well as could be expected, and are improving.

Little Men, a sequel to Little Women, by Miss Alcott, $1.50 at the News Depot.

The Odd Fellow brethren here are making ample preparations for their anniversary celebration next Friday; and from present indications the time is going to be a pleasant one. If the day is favorable we anticipate a large visitation of the brotherhood, and a number of spectators. Eminent speakers and good bands of music are promised and will be efficient in making the occasion an attractive one. All are invited.

Neighboring papers are beginning to talk Fourth-of-July, but no place in this vicinity appears to be making preparations for that anniversary, which will soon be here.

At present the great wheat fields in this vicinity present most satisfactory promises of yielding an abundant harvest. So also of the oats. And we are not going to be without peaches and apples. Cherries have been in market several days.

Wool is coming in more freely every day, and finds a ready market here at prices ranging from 45 to 50 cents a pound.

About these days Kelley & Peppers are prepared to deliver bricks to all who have use for such indispensable articles in building, having hardened them by the usual heating process.

Has there been anybody drunk in town of late? If so, who?—provided it is a matter of public interest.

Our municipal authorities have assessed 3 mills on the dollar for general purposes, which will raise some $20,000 in the shape of taxes.

Having just received the authentic time table, summer arrangement, we shall overhaul ours and bring it up to time next week.

Our railroad prospects for the north and south connection seem to be progressing favorably. Friends of the project, both here and elsewhere, are at work, and from all we can learn, have much to encourage them to go forward in behalf of the work. The Cleveland papers are stirring up their capitalists, and presenting the necessity of prompt and energetic action. That city is, if anything, more deeply interested in the road than any the rest of us, though it will favorably affect all that are on the route, when completed. Big cities, in such cases, are expected to do big things, but they are sometimes outdone by much smaller places; so Cleveland must be on the lookout. The committee, consisting of some of the principal officers, and others, connected with the Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Chicago road, stopped a short time at Canton, last Friday, and but for their hurrying to get through would have visited this place. From all that we can learn the prospects are quite favorable for us.

The democracy of Ohio held their state convention at Columbus on last Thursday. A large number of delegates were in attendance—every county is said to have been represented. They nominated G. W. McCook, of Jefferson, for governor; S. T. Hunt, of Hamilton, for lieutenant governor; E. S. Wallace, of Clark, for attorney general; R. Cockerill, of Adams, for auditor; G. W. Brudell, of Hamilton, for treasurer; G. W. Gaddis, of Richland for supreme judge; Arthur Hughes, of Cuyahoga, for board of public works; W. W. Ross, of Sandusky, for school commissioner. The greatest work done, however, was to adopt Vallandigham's platform. In 1867 when voting on the constitutional amendment the democrats claimed a majority of 50,000 against negro suffrage—now they have erected a platform one of the main planks of which concedes negro suffrage. Hereafter the leaders of that party have made it their boast that they never changed their principles—that they were always right, and were the strict followers of strict construction. In 1863 their banners passed through Massillon bearing the heart searching prayer of democratic maidens—"Fathers save us from negro husbands." The prayer has, as a rule been heard, for we have heard of but one negro who has ventured to violate its pleading by marrying a democratic woman. Now the platform says amen to the political equality of some 12,000 negroes, and Vallandigham is the Moses to lead the party to Africa's sunny land for voters. "Do you want your daughters to marry a nigger?" is now rubbed off the democratic side.

When the convention came to act on the platform the noise and confusion were terrific. The fossils pleaded and worked hard against being sold out as they regarded it, but it was all of no use. The young democracy were bound to make things go in the Vallandigham track and they prevailed—the majority report being carried by 365 yeas to 169 nays. This was a sort of side, make believe settlement of difficulties, but there is a large number of venerable hard heads in various parts of the state who must repudiate the platform or utterly stultify themselves. Which will they do? Bro. McGregor goes the new dispensation, nigger and all, if we understand him. Who would have thought that less than ten years ago?

Since the crushing out of the rebellion in France, by the suppression of the communists, comparative quiet reigns. The next quandary of that nation is, what sort of government will it adopt, and who shall be the rulers? Is the United States we should like to see it republican, but whether the people are prepared for that form of government is a matter of great doubt, judging by events which have transpired within the last year. We hope at least the nation may be at peace.

Many a man is rich without money. Thousands of young men with nothing in their pockets, and a thousand with good constitution, a good stomach, a good heart, and good limbs and a good head, are rich. Good bones are better than gold, tough muscles better than silver, and nerves that carry fire and energy to every function are better than houses and land. It is better than landed estates to have the right kind of father and mother. Good breeds exist among men as rarely as among herds and horses. Education may do much to check off the tendencies or to develop good to inherit the right proportions of faculties to start with. That man is rich who has the flavor of wit in his composition. The hardest thing to get along with in life is a man's own self. A cross selfish fellow, a despising, complaining fellow, a timid, care-burdened man—these are all born deformed on the inside. Their feet may not limp, but their thoughts do. A man of fortune, on the brink of the grave, would gladly part with every dollar to obtain a longer lease of life.

The widow of David Lewis, at Iron-ton, has obtained a verdict of $5,000 against Thomas Evans, a rumrunner of that place, as damages under the Ohio law. Her husband was a victim of delirium tremens.

Lima, Allen county, with a population of 4,700, has formed a joint stock association, with $50,000, to enforce the State liquor laws. All of the leading citizens have entered this league, and the first prosecution was made a week ago against a woman liquor seller and her landlord, by a wife in behalf of her husband. $299 was sued for as the damage this wife sustains by the drunkenness of her husband. Each lawyer had the pleasure of a woman client, and nearly two days and two nights were consumed in the trial without a result.

Every Saturday for this week comes to its readers with a new claim to favor. Every copy is trimmed, neatly pasted so as not to disfigure the paper, and held together as securely as if stitched. Sheets of a larger size are used, so that they are trimmed and yet leave the page of every Saturday quite as large as before. This arrangement will be so permanent, will be a very great convenience to all who read the diversified literary contents of Every Saturday and all who examine its weekly gallery of portraits, landscapes, and pictures of character, incident and travel.

IT IS PLAIN.

When we consider that every disease makes its attack first upon the blood, and that every different disorder imparts its own peculiar stamp to the urine, it is plain that we need only know what that peculiar stamp is, to be able to pronounce upon the nature, extent, and character of the disorder with undoubted certainty.

It has been long in the active practice of this system, at No. 132 Grant street, Pittsburgh, for over twenty years, during which time we have treated more than sixty thousand cases, thus including every variety and variety of disease, and on any system of medicine, that we can arrive at the general knowledge respecting the nature of disease from any other system," as also with Dr. Pratt, "that whatever may be the disease, the urine seldom fails in furnishing a clue to the principles upon which it is to be treated."

We are well aware, however, that some practitioners are opposed to this system of diagnosis. This arises entirely from their incomplete investigation of the subject. From our court an examination of the urine, and promise to render full satisfaction in the discriminating every case, and prove to every intelligent physician who will make applications that our course is a scientific one.

This we have already done in hundreds of instances, not only with the students of medicine at our college, but with the learned professors of medical colleges and cleverly educated physicians from all parts of the Union, who have witnessed our experiments at the office.

To argue that such investigations are idle, are as absurd as to argue that they are frequent. In this matter, which is, that those who are most ready to urge this view, and to deny its utility, are such as are least acquainted with its details.

Suffice it to say, that our daily practice and experience have proven these facts, and we advise all those laboring under chronic ailments, to carefully avail themselves of its advantages.

Those living at a distance, by sending a vial of urine for examination, can have the necessary medicines sent them.

COMPOUND FLUID
Extract Catawba
GRAPE PILLS!

Compound Parts.—Fibris Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba—A Grape Juice.

For Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Bilious Affections; Sick or Nervous Headache; Constipation, etc. Purely vegetable cathartic; no Mercury, Minerals or Detrimental drugs.

These pills are the most effectually pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone and cause neither nausea nor itching pains. And are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from impudience or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugared, coated, or flavored in any way, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. The Catawba Grape Pills, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar coated. Price 50 cents per box.

Henry T. Helmbold's

Dr. Lewis, in his book entitled "Our Girls," says:
I am astonished that a young woman is ambitious of a clear, fine skin would drink tea. It is an enemy to fair complexions. Coffee and cocoa, may be used without tinging the skin; but as soon as tea drinking becomes a regular habit, the eye of the discriminating observer detects it in the skin. Tea compromises the complexion, probably, by deranging the liver. Weak tea or coffee may be used occasionally, in moderate quantities, without noticeable harm, but I advise all young women who would preserve a soft, clear skin, quiet nerves, to avoid all drinks but cold water. It is an excellent plan to drink one or two glasses of cold water on lying down at night, and on rising in the morning. If you have good teeth, and can help the food into your stomach without using any fluid except the saliva, it will contribute much to your health.

A Dutchman once met an Irishman on a lonely highway. As they met each smiled, thinking he knew the other. Pat, on seeing his mistake remarked, with a look of disappointment: "Faith, an' I thought it was you, an' you thought it was me, an' it's nather of us."

"Yaw, dat is drue. I am anuder man, an' you is not yourself, and we poth some other podies."

Within the last fifteen years about 1,750,000 of British subjects have left the United Kingdom for the United States, besides those who have passed through Canada. The whole number of British subjects in the United States, was estimated, in 1891, at nearly 2,500,000.

A friend relates the following: A mile or two from town he met a boy on horseback crying with cold. Why don't you get down and lead him? That is the way to keep warm. 'No,' said the boy, 'it's a borrowed horse and I'll ride him if I freeze.'

A clergyman was recently depicting before a deeply interested audience the alarming increase of intemperance, astonished his hearers by exclaiming: 'A young man in my neighborhood died very suddenly last Sunday while I was preaching in a beastly state of intoxication.'

During the May anniversaries in New York, the following dialogue was overheard between two newsboys: 'Say, Jim, what's the meaning of so many ministers being here together?' 'Why,' answered Jim, scornfully, 'they always meet once a year, to exchange sermons with each other.'

A city exquisite having become agriculturally ambitious, went in search of a farm, and finding one for sale, began to bargain for it. The seller, mentioned, as one of its recommendations, that it had a very cold spring on it. 'Ah—ah!' said the fop, 'I won't take it then, for I've heard that cold springs ruined the crops last year, and I don't want a place with such a drawback upon it.'

A showman in the state of Maine wanted to exhibit an Egyptian mummy, and attended at the courthouse to obtain permission. 'What is it you want to show?' inquired the judge. 'An Egyptian mummy, more than three thousand years old,' said the showman. 'Three thousand years old!' exclaimed the judge, jumping to his feet; 'and is the critter alive?'

The wife of James Stanley, in Salsville, sued, last week, one whisky selling Bill Johnson, for the recovery of $300 damages, incurred by the latter retailing the ardent to her husband. The case was tried before Esquire Hunter, to a jury, and a verdict rendered of $263 16 against defendant.

Charley aged five years, has a brother a few weeks old. Nelly, a little girl of nine years, meeting him, asked if he was not glad to have a little brother to play with. With a shrug of his shoulders, Master Charlie replied, 'Play with? He can't wash his own face!'

When a steady, well behaved young man is seen shaking hands with a pump, and holding it affectionately good night, or saying, 'Poor old Corbison Robersaw,' there may be a faint apprehension that he has been taking something.

'The fact is,' said an elderly wife, 'a man does not know how to straighten up things.' He does not know how to begin. I don't wonder,' she remarked in conclusion, 'that when God made Adam, he went right to work and made a woman to tell him what to do.'

A Noblesville citizen who had made a bad purchase in the hog market, was overheard wrestling with the Lord, a few days ago to the following effect: 'O, Lord, for my sake just advance hogs one cent per hundred, and I won't pay but four dollars per hundred for any more. Amen.'

The night editor of a daily paper wrote this head line to one of his cable dispatches: 'The British lion shaking his mane.' He was unable to eat his breakfast next morning, when he found the printer's version of the matter staring him in the face. 'The British lion shaking in Maine.'

An unfortunate Indian missionary has had his sermon reported as follows: "The speaker was a deduction and gave a learned description of Satan and his skill for saving trees." The unhappy preacher wrote a piteous remonstrance to the editor of the paper which had published this resume, to say that he "was a dutchman," and not a deduction, and that he had described Satan as being brown, but as seen by the light."

Great Cause of Human Misery.
Just Published in a Sealed Envelope, Price six cents. A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical Cure of of Spermatorrhea, or Seminal weakness, involuntary seminal losses, impotency, mental and physical incapacity, impediments to marriage, etc.; also, consumption, epilepsy, and fits, induced by self indulgence or sexual extravagance.
The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice that the alarming consequences of self abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.
This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid on receipt of six cents or two post stamps.
Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents.

Dr. J. LONG.
Eclectic Physician,
Has located himself at Massillon, O., for the treatment of Female & Chronic Diseases.
Office east of the Park, second door of Mr. Palko's new building.
All consultations and examinations of patients made free of charge.
Dr. Long examines and explains your disease without asking any questions. If he understands your case you know it, and cannot be deceived. If he cannot tell your disease, and how you feel, without asking questions he does not consider himself competent to treat your case. This is the criterion to go by, and patients should not be satisfied with any other. This is the only direct and positive evidence of my ability as a scientific physician, and by this standard I am willing to be judged.
A proper diagnosis of local disease, without constitutional symptoms, that is not affecting the system generally, must depend upon the judgement of both patient and physician.
Give Dr. Long a call, and satisfy yourselves whether he understands your cases sufficiently well to treat them successfully.
Dr. Long may be consulted in the German and English languages. Address letters, JAMES LONG, M. D. Massillon, Ohio.

MONEY CANNOT BUY IT!
For Sight is Priceless.

The Diamond Glasses,
Manufactured by
J. E. Spencer & Co., N. Y.
Which are now offered to the public, are pronounced by all the celebrated Opticians of the World to be the Most Perfect, Natural, Artificial help to the human eye ever known.
They are ground under their own supervision, from minute Crystal Pebbles, melted together, and derive their name, "Diamond," on account of their hardness and brilliancy.
THE SCIENTIFIC PRINCIPLE on which they are constructed brings the core or center of the lens directly in front of the eye, producing a clear and distinct vision, as in the natural, healthy sight, and preventing all unpleasant sensations, such as glimmering and wavering of sight, dizziness, &c., peculiar to all others in use.
They are mounted in the Finest Manner in frames of the best quality, of all materials used for that purpose.
Their Finish and Durability cannot be surpassed.
CAUTION.—None genuine unless bearing their trade mark stamped on every frame.
JOSEPH COLEMAN, Jeweler and Optician, sole agent for Massillon, Ohio.

Singers Sewing Machine.
HINKLEY KNITTING MACHINE.
The most perfect and simple machines of the kind ever invented.
Both of the popular machines have been lately improved until they stand without a rival. Prices, and which produce some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are put a entirely cured.
It is self evident that the physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire a greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be sent by mail or express.
The doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases that can be had free at office or by mail, in sealed envelope, for two stamps. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
